Dear :

In the absence of the Director, I am taking the liberty of replying to your letter of 26 November 1948, addressed to Admiral Millemoetter and having reference to your interest in this Agency.

We have made inquiries to our various offices with regard to a position which might be of interest to you. There appears to be nothing available now or in the foreseeable future. We will, however, keep your interest in mind in case anything does turn up.

With real appreciation of your desire to be of assistance, I am

Sincerely,

E. A. WRIGHT
Brigadier General, USA
Deputy Director of Central Intelligence
